ITN – Rewarding Performance in Florida’s Workforce System through Data-Driven Decision-Making Technical Assistance, Project Management and Outreach Services

Question: Is there a character limit in the submission fields on the ITN?

Answer: There are no character limits within the fields of the ITN submission.

Question: Based on the current Performance Funding Model, please note existing improvement areas that have been identified on a preliminary basis to enhance the Model?

Answer: The PFM provides detailed metrics to advance performance within 24 local workforce development boards. Improvement areas may include identifying data areas in which guidance and technical assistance may be provided to local boards to more easily understand successful strategies to implement the metrics; approaches to present and communicate data and proposed strategies.

Question: Within the four areas of potential contractual services (as identified on page one of the ITN), and subsequent contractual timelines, please identify the timeframe for anticipated services?

Answer: It is anticipated contractual services will be negotiated for a period of August 2017 – June 30, 2018, with a potential one-year renewal through July 2019. Initial contract negotiations would be for services rendered during the first year with agreed-upon deliverable payments and potential second year deliverables based on a continuation of related services and new negotiated deliverable payments.

Question: What is the level of training and/or technical assistance to be provided to local workforce development boards?

Answer: Technical assistance and training opportunities offered to local boards may include webinars, multiple board group presentations, one-on-one teleconference/webinars and online communications. In person presentations may also be necessary with travel within the State of Florida.
