THE REACH ACT

The Reimagining Education and Career Help (REACH) Act was signed into law by Governor Ron DeSantis on June 24, 2021.

The new law:

- Helps Floridians with barriers to education and employment become self-sufficient by enhancing equity and access to good jobs and career pathways.
- Charges CareerSource Florida with development of and support for a new Credentials Review Committee of business, education and workforce leaders, to define credentials of value that align with in-demand jobs and careers in industries that drive the state economy.
- Requires the creation of a no-wrong-door entry strategy to help Floridians access education, training, career information and support services to enter and advance in the workforce.
